Testimonials

"I have found Town and Country to be caring with clients, but also very straight and to the point over the debt the clients owe. They will always advise us on all the debts as to whether they are worth chasing or collecting through the courts. They notify us every month of what they have collected and how they are pursuing other clients. All monies are forwarded to our bank every month with an invoice explaining of any deductions. I have found them to be very helpful."

Ford Mears & Partners Funeral Directors

"As a small family run business the last thing we need is the risk of bad debts; fortunately not a common occurrence for us. When the risks do occur, we don't have a 'credit control' department or lots of expertise and certainly don't want to pay more money on legal costs we may not get back. We've been using Kevin and the team at Town & Country Legal Services for a number of years and we are 100% satisfied and delighted with the service and results - with no up-front costs to us and with their fees being paid by the debtor we'll continue to keep them as a very valuable and effective supplier."
